

DCCR - What information is shared by General Practice?

Information provided from General Practice includes medications, allergies, diagnosis, treatment information and results of tests. It provides a history of information from the care an individual has received at General Practice.

Online URL: <https://elearning.cornwall.nhs.uk/site/kb/article.php?id=221>