

Point of Care Training

Point of Care Training

Description:

Urine Pregnancy Testing

The Siemens Clinitest is a rapid chromatographic immunoassay for the qualitative detection of hCG in urine to aid in the early detection of pregnancy at the point-of-care. Once training has been completed, please complete 'The assessment of Learning', as linked below:

Radiometer ABL90 Flex Plus

This e-learning package is intended train staff in the safe operation of the Radiometer ABL90 Flex Plus Blood Gas Analyser .

Once training has been completed, please complete 'The assessment of Learning', as linked below:

Urinalysis (dipstick) testing

Testing urine for diagnostic purposes has been around for thousands of years; it was the first laboratory test ever to be performed in medicine.

Once training has been completed, please complete 'The confirmation of Learning', as linked below:

Diabetes blood glucose meter learning eLearning available: Point of Care Training \(cornwall.nhs.uk\)

Online URL: <https://elearning.cornwall.nhs.uk/site/kb/article.php?id=310>